NOTES

Any Ordinary Shareholder may, in writing, appoint a proxy, who need not be a shareholder, to represent him/her at the annual general meeting. Any company, being an Ordinary Shareholder, may execute a form of proxy under the hand of a duly authorised officer. The instrument appointing a proxy together with evidence of the authority of the person by whom the proxy is signed (except in the case of a proxy signed by the shareholder), shall be deposited at the registered office of the Company, 24 hours before the time for the holding of the AGM or its adjournment (as the case may be) at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote. No instrument appointing a proxy shall be valid after the expiration of 12 months from the date of its execution. Any Ordinary Shareholder may, instead of sending the proxy form to the registered office, send the proxy form (completed in accordance with its instructions) to the appropriate transfer agent 48 hours prior to the AGM in order that the transfer agents may be able to send the proxy form on your behalf to the registered office 24 hours before the time for holding of the meeting.

A form of proxy is enclosed with this notice, the completion of which will not preclude an Ordinary Shareholder from attending and voting at the AGM in person to the exclusion of any proxy appointed.

Resolutions 1 to 5 are to be proposed as ordinary resolutions and Resolutions 6 and 7 are to be proposed as extraordinary resolutions.

Ordinary resolutions may be passed at the AGM by a simple majority representing more than 50 percent of the voting rights attached to shares represented and entitled to vote at the AGM. Extraordinary resolutions require a 75 percent majority by nominal value of shares represented at the AGM and entitled to vote and at least 51 percent in nominal value of all the shares entitled to vote at the AGM. The quorum requirement in relation to both ordinary resolutions and extraordinary resolutions is at least two Members holding shares granting the right to vote in the Company who are present or represented at the AGM.
